Employment history

While I was studying at school I went and worked for Trotter.uk for Some work experience. At Trotter we travelled to different places such as Birmingham and Bournemouth to replenish advertising on billboards. References available upon request.

I currently work at Churchill's Fish and Chips and my job role includes Cooking and Cleaning, both of these roles comes with responsibilities regarding health and safety. For example while cooking I have to always make sure my work surface is clean and always have to wash my hands or wear gloves to make sure I do not contaminate the food. I also had responsibilities when cleaning so then the next day the shop look clean and as good as new.
